(Special from a Staff Correspondent.)

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 30.—Lynchburg had a batting rally in the ninth inning and beat the Lawmakers out of the game after it had been won. The score was 10 to 7.

The game opened to-day in fine shape for the Richmonders, and it looked good until the eighth and ninth innings. Two runs came over the rubber in the first, third and still another in the fifth.
Lynchburg scored first in the third, again in the fourth and again in the fifth.
In the eighth they made two runs that brought the score up to five, with Richmond having the game cinched with six tallies. But that ninth inning is something that I don't like to talk very much about, fellows. It was fierce, and I think I lost ten pounds in four minutes. Eleven men came to bat and one of these bled out for four sacks.

That Fulton Lad.
Leo Sharp, the silent little fellow from Richmond, who can play any position, went to bat in the ninth inning for Eckstone. He wiggled his stick at the first one from Moser's hand, and the ball went ten feet over the left-fielders head.
When it got back in the diamond that little Fulton was putting his little toothy wootsy on the home plate.

Mr. W. B. Bradley, one of the owners of the league, is here, and witnessed the game to-day. He will not be here tomorrow, but will see Wednesday's game.

DANVILLE DEFEATED.

Tobaccoists Made Numerous and Costly Errors Which Lost Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., April 30.—The opening game here of the Virginia State League, between the Danville and the local by Norfolk by a score of 7 to 6.
The game, though exciting and interesting to a degree, was characterized by errors.

Mayor Harry Wooding made a speech and tossed the first ball over the plate.
Norfolk led off with four runs in the first inning, caused by numerous and costly errors on the part of the Tobaccoists.
After this inning Danville somewhat redeemed herself, and by the eighth inning led by the score, 4 to 2. In the ninth the visitors sent two men across the plate, caused by the failure of Woodward, in right field, to catch a difficult fly from Clark, and by a wild throw on the part of Reggie, at third base.

McDonald, pitcher for Danville, would have won if given proper support. Leonard, for Norfolk, was in fairly good form, but the Danville man outpitched him.
Captain Clark of Norfolk, was ruled out in the ninth inning for protesting against a decision of the umpire.

The following tabulated score tells the story of how the game was beaten:

LOSES FOUR STRAIGHTS.

Roanoke Took the Heart Out of Truckers in the First.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PORTSMOUTH, VA., April 30.—Portsmouth lost her fourth straight game today, when Roanoke defeated the Truckers by the score of 8 to 0. The game was witnessed by one thousand fans, and was too one-sided to be interesting. Roanoke landed on Revell in the first inning, and scored four runs before the side was returned. They added three more in the second, and this lead took all the sun out of the Portsmouth players. Time after time, with men on the bases and nobody out, the batters would pop up a fly or strike out. Willis was always effective.
Roanoke played a splendid fielding game, will take two of the three games.

The Lawmakers are quartered at the Arlington Hotel, and great crowds have been there to see them.

PLAYED LIFELESS GAME.

Virginia Defeats Kentucky Before Her Southern Trip.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 30.— In a lifeless game, the last before she leaves on her Southern trip, Virginia defeated Kentucky State College to-day 7 to 2. The Kentuckians got only one hit off of Susong in five innings. Moore and Mosh went then in to finish out the contest. Virginia showed up in poor form with the stick, Captain Graham being the only player who was able to land on the ball.

Virginia scored in the first and seventh innings. Lawler opened the game by bunting safely, but was forced at second.
The hit and run game was then worked.
Walker going from first to third on Graham's single. Both batted on McDowell's error. Dalton tallied later on an infield out. In the seventh, Moore and Lawler walked, and on Walker's hit, which got away from the left fielder, all three runners scored.
Despite his two errors, McDowell, who was pretty sure of apparently safe hits, Hillmeyer, at second, and Catcher Stone put up the best game for the Kentuckians.

CAME TO TIE IN NINTH

Visitors Make Two in Eleventh, Richmond One, and Game

Goes to Presbyterians.

In an unusually long and wildly exciting game yesterday afternoon in Broad Street Park, Hampden-Sidney defeated Richmond College by a score of 5 to 4.

The game lasted eleven innings, and was a battle royal from start to finish.
Both pitchers pitched a steady game, and every other man on both teams fielded his position almost to perfection.

The game was remarkably peculiar, in that both sides were at bat forty-three times; both made ten hits, and there were only five errors from start to finish.

Richmond College, in the third inning, when Philhower made a hit, stole second, scored on Fleming's hit, and Fleming scored on Bedinger's hit. The game was then tied, 1 to 1.

In the fourth inning, when Philhower made a hit, stole second, scored on Fleming's
hit, and Fleming scored on Bedinger's hit. The game
was then tied, 1 to 1.

In the fifth inning, when Philhower made a hit, stole
second, scored on Fleming's
hit, and Fleming scored on Bedinger's hit. The game
was then tied, 1 to 1.

In the sixth inning, when Philhower made a hit, stole
second, scored on Fleming's
hit, and Fleming scored on Bedinger's hit. The game
